

What's the Good News?

Pop the Champagne

We're celebrating!

We are proud to announce that, this year, at the Home of the Year Awards 2017, BNC Technology walked away with not one, but two (yes two!) awards. Our work on The Kyalami House and The Concrete House earned us the EH Home of the Year Silver and Gold respectively, for the Best International Project.

Mind the Gap...

We've upgraded Control 4

Control-4! Oh how we love it: our integrated home automation software system. It's the reason you can turn your bedroom lights off from your lounge. It's the reason you can let someone in through the garage while you're in the backyard. It's the magic wand of the 21st Century. But like every magic wand, now and then, it needs a little dusting.

What's Hot...

Call your squad.
Or Jordan Belfort.
Or Ozzy Osbourne.
We've got a TV for them.

It's big, it's bold, it's only available to our most exclusive clientele - and it's waterproof! We're talking about the C SEED 201, better known as the world's largest outdoor TV! It's an outdoor spectacular at the touch of a button.

Product/ Service Highlights...

Here comes the Sun...

BNC Technology has seen the light- and its changing lives! We're talking Solar Power here. Specifically photovoltaic solar energy (PV) BNC Technology now offers its clientele a solar option with installed PV panels, controllable by a dashboard within your Control 4 system. Sunshine and convenience, what more could you ask for.

SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT - PACKAGES

Just Ask Nick

Let's Make this Easy Guys!

We know Home Integration is the future of plush living. Lighting control, climate control, security, entertainment, outdoor entertainment; the list goes on and on. But hey, I get it - I understand how daunting it can be to get started. You're putting your home - and a large chunk of budget- into someone else's hands! Off the cuff, you will have a hundred questions. You will want to know exactly what goes where, how it works, how easy will it be to maintain and how much you're in for.
